CLUES

(solve in any order)

Ready for more fun on your IU Day campus crawl? Visit this garden spot where you can really have a Ball.

What looks like a pyramid and makes quite a splash? It's the next stop on your IU Day dash.

Do you a-Spire to be an IU Day winner? Then stop by the big statue in our campus center.

Visit this spiraling sculpture that really makes the cut at the place where you can get out of a reading rut.

Is your energy beginning to lag? Then it might be time to find a Jag! Around the campus center they often roam, bringing cheer to all who call IUPUI home.

Walk across campus without getting cold feet, then share your IUPUI passion where kinesiology, sports management, tourism, and events meet.

“Open up and say ‘ah’” will one day be their refrain. Make a stop at this place where future dentists train.
